

After starting my business I thought life was going to get easier. I had dreams of having a huge company that flourished beyond my wildest dreams. Unfortunately that did not happen and my risk left me with incredible debt. This was a huge defeat and I was devastated. I had collection call after collection call. I had companies not only calling me but calling my extended family. I didn't know where to turn or what to do. Things got so bad that threats of judgments started to come. Every person I spoke to on the phone didn't want to work with me. They wanted all or nothing. I mean some of these people were downright nasty. They treated me like I was a low life that just wasn't paying my bills. It started to get to a point that it was affecting my life. I owned a house and was getting married and wanted to start a family but how can you do that with collection calls and financial issues. I felt lost and like a failure. I started looking for some help.

I found information on this company Corporate Turnaround and I am not going to lie I was very skeptical. You hear of so many scams and how bad things turn out. I read a few testimonies like this one and thought it could totally just be made up. I am telling you that they aren't. I spoke with Anthony P [redacted] and started to feel a little better about it. We gave him all of the information he needed and all the bills that were outstanding for the business. People told me it was a mistake but I really had nowhere else to turn but file for bankruptcy and lose my house.

Anthony started working on the bills immediately. Not too long after I started speaking with Anthony, I got served with papers to appear in court for one of my bills. He handled it immediately and work out a payment plan so I didn't have to go through the proceedings. I had money frozen in my bank account by a credit card company and Anthony got through to the right people and worked it out for me. The money was back in my account and I had another bill taken care of. Without his help I would still be dealing with the harassing calls and all the mounds of debt. The phones called stopped and I had someone to turn that understands that I am only human and didn't intentionally get into debt.

And as I said before I didn't have the money to pay these people out right and it was overwhelming to even think about. Anthony and Corporate Turnaround worked with what I could give him. He was working for me, not the credit card companies. I am now out of debt and rebuilding my credit. I could have never done it without the help of Anthony and Corporate Turnaround.

I want to thank Anthony P [redacted] for all of his hard work and always making me feel like I was important and not just another client. Without him I would have never gotten out of debt and would have lost everything.

Sincerely,
