To Whom It May Concern,

I started my own business in early 2008. Not the greatest economic climate to start a business in, but I was determined. My credit was spectacular and I had almost no monthly bills. I had already worked in the same industry for over 17 years for other people, so I thought I knew what it took to do it for myself. I didn't. I made some serious financial mistakes from the beginning and by the time I realized them, it was almost too late. I lost my house. Bankruptcy was not an option because my store was all I had left and I NEEDED it to survive. Once I realized I needed help, I turned to the Internet, and let me tell you, I found many, many organizations that claimed to be able to help, but then I came across Corporate Turnaround and they immediately felt different. They were not the first people I turned to, but they were the ones that gave me hope.

I can't express to you how wonderful it was to be able to direct every angry bill collector to them, knowing Corporate Turnaround was there to take care of it for me. Honestly, having the angry phone calls stop is just as good of a feeling as actually getting out from under this debt.

Working with Corporate Turnaround let me concentrate on my business while they took care of negotiating down my debt. I no longer dreaded the ringing telephone. I was able to stop wondering how I was going to pay those bills. Working with Anthony was virtually effortless. He explained every step of the process to me and kept me updated on the status of each creditor. And I brought them a LOT of creditors. Anthony never judged me or my (lack of) business. He did his job like a pro and I very much felt like we were a team. Also, the Corporate Turnaround client portal website was very helpful for letting me know where I was with every creditor at any time of the day. I can't tell you how many times I logged in to check on my status.

And then something happened that I only dreamt of—Anthony called me to tell me that we were done; that everything was paid off. I almost couldn't believe it. I mean, one of my creditors was the Federal Government. Can you imagine trying to negotiate with the Federal Government? I couldn't. Anthony did.

Now here it is, 2016 and my business is alive and stronger than ever. I never would have gotten to this point without Corporate Turnaround. If you are reading this and are wondering if there is hope for you and your business, the answer is a resounding yes. You have found the right place for you. Don't hesitate; let Corporate Turnaround help you the way they've helped me.

Sincerely,

Your company's results may vary. Every restructuring has a unique combination of issues and factors, including the length of participation in the program. All of these variables affect individual outcomes. There are no "typical" results. Until a debt is resolved, creditors may continue with their collection efforts, including phone calls and legal action. CT does not provide any legal services or legal advice. There are no time limits for reaching settlements. Some creditors may settle after CT's first set of offers, and others may be resolved later on. Consult with a licensed attorney regarding the applicability of bankruptcy.
